

Resolution on the current situation in Angola

-Considering that the composition of the National Electoral Commission must be based on the general elections results of each polls;

-Noting that the National Electoral Commission credibility is one of the milestone to guarantee free and fair elections;

-Considering the barriers put against political opponents in accessing public media facilities;

The IDC-CDI:

-Calls on the Angolan government and it party state, to respect the Rule of Law and ensure that the NEC seats are occupied by their members accordingly to what is stated by Law in respect of the Will of the people.

-Reminds the Angolan authorities of the importance and necessity of ensuring, for the 2027 upcoming elections, a NEC composition based on the 2022 general elections , that will serve as a starting point toward next elections;

-Recommends all the Angolan institutions in general and particularly the Public Media to stop denying their access to the political opponents of the current government, and respect the democratic principles established in the Angolan constitution wich recommend to build a strong free press.
